
University Conduct and Title V

Students found in violation of the Student Code of Conduct and other related policies will be held accountable for their actions and will face disciplinary action and/or legal prosecution. Students will also be held accountable for allowing or soliciting violations of procedures by their guest(s).

University Regulations Process

Residents who violate University Conduct Regulations (California Code of Regulations) will be referred to the University Conduct Officer. Serious violations of Residential Community policy may also be referred to the University Conduct Officer. University disciplinary sanctions include but are not limited to:

- Referral to the University student disciplinary process;

- Suspension;
- Probation;
- Educational assignments.

University Conduct Regulations

The University is committed to maintaining a safe and healthy living and learning environment for students, faculty, and staff. Each member of the campus community must choose behaviors that contribute toward this end. Student behavior that is not consistent with the Student Conduct Code is addressed through an educational process that is designed to promote safety and good citizenship and, when necessary, impose appropriate consequences.

A) Student Responsibilities:

Students are expected to be good citizens and to engage in responsible behaviors that reflect well upon their university, to be civil to one another and to others in the campus community, and to contribute positively to student and university life.

B) Unacceptable Student Behaviors:

The following behavior is subject to disciplinary sanctions: 1. Dishonesty, including:

a. Cheating, plagiarism, or other forms of academic dishonesty that are intended to gain unfair academic advantage.

b. c. d.

activity.

4. Participating in an activity that substantially and materially disrupts the normal operations of the University, or infringes on the rights of members of the University community.

5. Willful, material and substantial obstruction of the free flow of pedestrian or other traffic, on or leading to campus property or an off-campus University related activity.

6. Disorderly, lewd, indecent, or obscene behavior at a University related activity, or directed toward a member of the University community.

7. Conduct that threatens or endangers the health or safety of any person within or related to the University community, including physical abuse, threats, intimidation, harassment, or sexual misconduct. Hazing, or conspiracy to haze, as defined in Education Code Sections 32050 and 32051:

"Hazing" includes any method of initiation or pre-initiation into a student organization, or any pastime or amusement engaged in with respect to such an organization which causes, or is likely to cause, bodily danger, physical harm, or personal degradation or disgrace resulting in physical or mental harm, to any student or other person attending any school, community college, college, university or other educational institution in this state; but the term "hazing" does not include customary athletic events or other similar contests or competitions.

Furnishing false information to a University official, faculty member, or campus office. Forgery, alteration, or misuse of a University document, key, or identification instrument.

Misrepresenting one's self to be an authorized agent of the University or one of its auxiliaries.

2. Unauthorized entry into, presence in, use of, or misuse of University property.
3. Willful, material and substantial disruption or obstruction of a University-related activity, or any on- campus

A group of students acting together may be considered a 'student organization' for purposes of this section whether or not they are officially recognized. Neither the express or implied consent of a victim of hazing, nor the lack of active participation while hazing is going on is a defense. Apathy or acquiescence in the presence of hazing is not a neutral act, and is also a violation of this section.

8. Use, possession, manufacture, or distribution of illegal drugs or drug-related paraphernalia, (except as expressly permitted by law and University regulations) or the misuse of legal pharmaceutical drugs.
9. Use, possession, manufacture, or distribution of alcoholic beverages (except as expressly permitted by law and University regulations), or public intoxication while on campus or at a University related activity.

10. Theft of property or services from the University community, or misappropriation of University resources.
11. Unauthorized destruction or damage to University property or other property in the University community.
12. Possession or misuse of firearms or guns, replicas, ammunition, explosives, fireworks, knives, other weapons, or dangerous chemicals (without the prior authorization of the campus president) on campus or at a University related activity.

13. Unauthorized recording, dissemination, or publication of academic presentations (including handwritten notes) for a commercial purpose.

14. Misuse of computer facilities or resources, including:

a. b. c. d.

e. f. g. h.

while acting in the performance of his/her duties.

17. Any act chargeable as a violation of a federal, state, or local law that poses a substantial threat to the safety or well-being of members of the University community, to property within the University community or poses a significant threat of disruption or interference with University operations.

18. Violation of the Student Conduct Procedures, including:

a. b. c. d. e. f. g.

Falsification, distortion, or misrepresentation of information related to a student discipline matter.
Disruption or interference with the orderly progress of a student discipline proceeding.
Initiation of a student discipline proceeding in bad faith.

Attempting to discourage another from participating in the student discipline matter. Attempting to influence the impartiality of any participant in a student discipline matter. Verbal or physical harassment or intimidation of any participant in a student discipline matter. Failure to comply with the sanction(s) imposed under a student discipline proceeding.

Unauthorized entry into a file, for any purpose. Unauthorized transfer of a file.
Use of another's identification or password.

Use of computing facilities, campus network, or other resources to interfere with the work of another member of the University community.

Use of computing facilities and resources to send obscene or intimidating and abusive messages.

Use of computing facilities and resources to interfere with normal University operations.

Use of computing facilities and resources in violation of copyright laws.

Violation of a campus computer use policy.

15. Violation of any published University policy, rule, regulation or presidential order.

16. Failure to comply with directions or, or interference with, any University official or any public safety officer

19. Encouraging, permitting, or assisting another to do any act that could subject him or her to discipline.

C) Procedures for Enforcing This Code

The Chancellor shall adopt procedures to ensure students are afforded appropriate notice and an opportunity to be heard before the University imposes any sanction for a violation of the Student Conduct Code.
